In This Issue...
You will find a variety of short stories and different types of poetry. Enjoy reading about the topics that are important to our very own Lincoln authors. Great job Literary Lions!

Editors’ Note
We are so proud of our members and the wonderful pieces they submitted this year. The students explored topics that are meaningful in their own lives and produced a variety of short stories. We also added our famous “Diary of a Lincoln Kid” where students could take a moment to jot down a thought about their day. Check out our website to see what goes on in the great minds of our Literary Lions! We ended the year with a read aloud party to share all of our favorite pieces with one another. Enjoy the magazine and also take a look at these wonderful writing samples online.

Write on!
Heather Layng, Danielle Revere, and Marsha Romero

A Note From Mr. Lee
Dear Lincoln “Literary Lions” Authors,
I want to thank you for sharing your wonderful talents with the entire Lincoln School community! Your writing pieces reflect your humor, your thoughtfulness, and your observations of the world around you. The poems and stories you wrote included everything from a favorite holiday to a sunny spring day to the sports you play... and lots in between! I am struck by your imagination and by the variety of your writing pieces. Remember to keep writing about what inspires you and always work on improving your craft! I commend you for your hard work this year and for creating a lasting memory for Lincoln School!

Thank you also to our Lincoln parents, including Mrs. Layng, Mrs. Romero, and Mrs. Revere, for your guidance, leadership, and inspiration to our Literary Lions!

Sincerely,
Mr. Lee
Leaving Lincoln

“BRRING!” The hum of the bell made me jitter.

“Step, Step, Step.” my feet walked along the marble floors of the hallway as I hear the kids chanting.

“No More School!” All the kids ran out as fast as cheetahs.

It was time for me to leave.

As I walked out into the sun I could barely breath.

Leaving Lincoln was a horrible sight.

I could see the trees waving goodbye in the wind.

I thought about all the things here....

Scooter bowl, book buddies, field trips, too.

And don’t forget the hawk,

he flies up, down and all around and sometimes even lands on the ground.

The butterflies in my stomach began to tremble,

it was time to leave Lincoln leave behind my past and assemble my future!

I like to play football for hours on Thanksgiving,
My family plays board games while I play Nerf all day.
When it is time to come up, I eat turkey and stuffing,
And my favorite part of all is the family stuffing.
Flowers

The flowers dance in the breeze,
While the trees just sway
They smell oh so sweet
But sometimes they shrivel in the heat
Their colors are so bright,
I MIGHT pick one
These beautiful things,
Are better than diamond rings!
Sparkle In My Eye

I saw a sparkle and it went into my eye, then I saw a unicorn and she jumped.
She jumped way too high,
she went so high and never came down.
The Fourth of July she had red, white, and blue on
I looked and I looked and saw she had the flu.
Now she sneezed out blue,
Achoo Achoo!!!
She was gone
Sparkle in my eye.

My New Kitten

Today’s the day someone special arrives
Furry and small but her nails are tall
I love her so much
We are going to play everyday
I’ll teach her tricks, treat her well
Even when her litter box starts to smell
Welcome Lila, our new kitten
We love you so much!
Up Down

Up down, up down, look at me in the air.
I can touch the sky and feel the trees.
Off I fell on a bouncy trampoline.

Monkeys

One morning
I woke up in bed
I found what I wanted instead
Candy, presents, monkeys and more!
Spring

Spring is fun,
On the grill, I like to cook buns.
On warm spring days, I look at the sun.
    YAY!
Spring is here!
But it won’t come back until next year.

The Night Sky

There was a star shining bright,
The people in our car had a very big fright.
    We saw the night sky,
    We all wanted to fly.
An airplane in the sky had a very big flight,
    We saw the light from that big flight.
    It was the night,
    I felt like I was flying in the sky.
And I never came back until the 4th of July.
    This is the end,
    SAY BYE!!
Creaky Presidents

I was going to the bathroom and the doors were creaking,
Abraham Lincoln and George Washington were creaking them.

I ran out of the bathroom and into the hall, someone was tapping me on the back but no one was there.

The ghosts were there,
I told my friends, “I’m out of here...I’m moving to Florida.”

I am going to get a ticket!

Spring

I love Spring.
I love Dandelions.
I love Violets.
I love Tulips.

And don’t forget, Roses too.
I love Spring.
I love it!
I love it!

Especially the flowers blooming.
Spring is the best season ever.
Spring Time

Food trucks carnivals play play play eating out doors picnic fun playgrounds apples having gum say bye winter
hello Spring!!!

Kids

kids day is fun
you eat and play
every day
kids are in charge
bye-bye parents
you eat pizza and ice cream and you go to the arcade, too.

Sara Cays 2D
Dancing across the floor,
Amazing moves to do.
Nice click clack across the floor,
Concentrating on the move,
Everyone watching.

Leprachaun, Leprachaun
A leprachaun found some gold,
And put it in a hole.
The hole was deep,
The hill was steep,
And he didn’t want it sold.
Cake Day

Cake, oh cake, how I crave dear cake!
What would I do without cake?
I would do anything to get cake.
Cake could be my dessert,
Cake could be my breakfast.
On cake day, you eat cake for all meals that day.
Parents can’t tell you what to do that day.
You are the boss on Cake Day.

Yum Yum

My mom’s yum yum
Is in my tum tum.
When I come home,
I love my mum mum.
Jasmine from Aladdin

My hair is long and black.

I am wearing a blue top and bottom.

My pet is a tiger and his name is Rajah.

I live in Agrabah.

Who Am I?

Little Leprechaun

A little man about two feet tall, lived under a large tree by a stream.

You could easily find him by his green hat and green shirt.

If you catch him in your trap, he will give you all his gold!

He has orange hair, and a yellow and black belt.

If you find him, remember to peek and then shout, “Leprechaun!”

Lion’s Birthday

Lions, Lions oh so big!

They are so tough!

Flowers all around, and they are beautiful.

It was Mama lion’s birthday that day!

Papa lion got her a present. It was a baby for her birthday.

She doesn’t have any baby lions yet.
Rhyming with Sammy

I have a great cat named Sammy.
She’s a big part of our family.
She walks on my face
I put her in my place
She likes to lay with my Lammy.

Spring

My favorite season is spring
Because I like to jump and Run around and
Swing on my swing
That is on a tree.
Star Butterfly

“Burrito, Burrito”.

Unicorns.

Butterflies.

Wand.

Magic.

Laser pups.

Who Am I?

Elsa

I am a queen.

I have special powers.

I made my dress.

My mom and dad were king and queen.

Who am I?
