Dear Ms. Macaluso,

On behalf of the women and children who turn to Oasis to rise out of poverty, I am writing to thank the Student Council for so generously raising $474.79 in support of our programs through their Book Swap fundraiser.

Spring has always been a time for new beginnings. Flowers and trees bloom, the sun feels warmer and brighter, and new life seems to spring up everywhere.

To us, it seems like spring is present all year long at Oasis, as women and children find fresh optimism for a new beginning – one that means self-sufficiency, confidence in the future, the blossoming of hope where none existed before.

Thanks to you and your generosity, some of the most vulnerable women and children in our community find this new beginning at Oasis. Hope comes in so many varieties:

- The high school student who joins our Teen Program, finding a safe place to be after school off the streets of Paterson where he or she can explore their future and get the support they need;
- The mom who learns that not only can she earn her high school diploma at Oasis, but that we will watch her baby at no cost – opening a door that had been closed;
- The elderly woman who no longer has to choose between rent and food, because she will be fed – in community – at Oasis.

For these reasons, and so many more, we are deeply grateful for your gift that brings new life – and new hope – to our community!

With gratitude,

Jennifer Brady
Executive Director
